Have a great four-day weekend!

Book-It forms are due on November 3rd.

FYI- Even if you call and tell me about an unplanned absence, we are required to get it in writing. If your child has been absent recently, please send me a note with the reason.

Bible Memory Verse for the week of November 3rd:

Do to others as you would have them do to you.
Luke 6:31

Meaning: Treat others like you want to be treated.
Students must be able to quote verse, including reference and tell what it means as discussed in class.

In Bible, we will be learning about the importance of obedience.

Language: We will be learning the special sounds in chart 9 and studying charts 6-10.

Math: We will be learning about the months of the year and addition family 8. We will continue to learn about the clock and measurement.

Spelling words: be he me by my cry try go no so one two
Focus is on special sounds e, y, and o.

Science: We will begin a unit on weather

Social Studies: We will begin a unit on the Pilgrims and Native Americans.

This week's chapel award winner was Bradley Taylor. Nathyn Sechler received the character trait award for Kindness.

Way to go, boys!

The final schedule for Parent-Teacher Conferences went home yesterday. If you have any questions, please let me know.

If your child forgets something like their backpack, homework, or snack I respectfully ask that you take it to the office. They will let us know that it has been dropped off. It can be disruptive to the class if visitors drop by unexpectedly.
