- c. September 7 Military First Responder theme game- The game was well attended. PSA presented colors and VCS recognized all military members both active and retired as well as all first responders both active and retired. The group of them took a picture at half time with the football team and coaches (most of whom are military themselves.)

- d. Homecoming Tailgate October 12 - Krolls will help with more tables and chairs. The Booster Club will meet again prior to the event to plan the tailgate menu and volunteer details.
- e. Country Fair Booth October 18 -
 - i. The group agreed that we will attract more kids with games and worked on game ideas. One idea: Batting cage tunnel using snow balls, lined with trees, pillows to throw into (looking like snow) and to advertise tree sales with Christmas music and added radar gun with age appropriate competition group; Second idea hoppity hop races; Third idea Christmas darts; Fourth idea hanging donut game Krispy Cream. The group decided upon the batting cage and hoppity hop races with no food offerings. Christmas Tree flyers will be available at the booth. The group will assemble with volunteers to plan.
- f. Christmas Breakfast celebrate holidays. The ideas were rolling in and the group agreed to hold the breakfast on the day that Christmas Trees were ready to be picked up, include family pictures, and perhaps roll in the Senior Class “day care” event to offer for families for Christmas shopping. Further discussion will take place regarding this event and planning.

- g. St Patrick’s Day 5K – This is a new concept to promote “get out and move” and school spirit. An event would be planned to include a school wide day of fun. This is not a fundraiser, only a Booster Sponsored activity.
 - h. Spring Fundraiser – See’s Easter Candy (TBD)
 - i. ESPYs - May 17th tentative date. Event will be held at Harvest Church and the planning will begin next few weeks
5. Snack Bar Update – Jolene - football snack bar is crazy and hard to judge how much to purchase. We are missing out on the recycling at the games. Tomorrow’s volleyball game - need to shop for the snack bar and include cheese burgers.
- a. Question, are the classes allowed to do 50 50 raffles at the game? The Booster Officers answered, NO as there are too many non-profit rules and this is too risky for the school.
6. Items from Members
- Pom poms Lisa presented a sample of the pom poms. They cost $1.30 ea. The decision was made to sell 1 for $5 and 2 for $8. They should come in before the October 5th football game.
- May we have a copy of the picture that was taken on September 7th? Mike will request this. (picture was received by end of the meeting)
- May we sell spirit wear at Country Fair? Yes, Natalie Dingman has volunteered
7. NEXT MEETING – October 8, 2018 6:00 pm in the CRC Note, meeting was moved to accommodate a Nation Honor Society event.
8. CLOSED IN PRAYER - Jesse
